QUOTATIONS OF THE NEW YORK

week the bank has gamed £212,000, e the reserve has been increased £170. Prices for American securities were higner there. The stock market aere, ever, was overshadowed by Union Pahowever, was overshadowed by Union Pa-cific. People naturally argued that if there was a decrease of $482,459 for October, the tet earnings for December were not likely to be much better, and that if such should be the case a decrease of 16 per cent, or more in the net earnings for the year was not improbable, in which case it would be difficult to avoid a receivership. Under the weakening influence of Union Pacific prices declined throughout the after-noon and closed generally at the lowest point. The decline ranged from 1/2 to 21/2 per cent. DULUTH VS. LONDON.

tionably the foremost of contemporary V ginians in literature, has been in Europe seeral month. He is exceedingly fond of London, for here better than any other place in the world can be feed his love for things which age and reminiscence have rendered beautiful. Page is poetle to a degree. He writes beautiful verse, as you know; better "till, he loves to invest the common places of life with poetle thought. He is by no meanse a ventimentalist. He detests every meanse a sentimentalist. He detests every thing that approaches to the maudlin and the by-sterical, but sees life and natur brough reverential eves, and that is what sees in life more of beauty, of wisder enderness and pathos than very many of tenderness and pathos than very many of others see.

The other morning—it was sunny and balmy, for a wonder—Mr. Page made up his mind to stroll about London. That might involve many hours of walking, but he had sagaciously mapped out a little rone which would not require more than two hours and would include a view of several notable spots. A Mr. Hinton accompanied the famous Virginian. This Mr. Hinton hails from Duluth, Minn.; a young man full of the most exuberant American spirit and bountifully provided with means wherewith to gratify a laudable desire for travel. Mr. Hinton liked Mr. Page because Mr. Page was "so darned well up in history and was "so darned well up in history and things," and Mr. Page liked Mr. Hinton for his exuberance and candor. The twain were wholly congenial.

They started out of Bolton street and walked up Piccadilly, Mr. Page calling his

How's Your Liver?

Is the Oriental salutation. knowing that good health cannot exist without a healthy Liver. When the Liver is torpid the Bowels are sluggish and constipated, the food lies in the stomach undigested, poisoning the blood; frequent headacho ensues; a feeling of lassitude, despondency and nervousness indicate how the whole system is deranged. Simmons Liver Regulator has been the means of restoring more people to health and happiness by giving them a healthy Liver than any agency known on earth. It acts with extraordinary power and efficacy. Never Been Disappointed.

DEAR Sid: In reply to your inquiry I would say, that in 1860 I took my first $5,000 policy and I after and becrassed my insurance from time to time until I now hove $1.0,000 nm my i te; $20.1 of this I took in the Northwestern in 1882, which was all your company would issue 0 one life at that time. The cash dividend have increased each year and have aver ged over 30 per ce.t. of the premiums.

Having com area issuits on my insurance in the other companies with policies of the same date, age, kind and amount in the vort western, I find that the sividends bald by the Northwe tern are larger than those of any other company in which I am houred.

Very truly yours.
